CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

2 19-12-2019 This Criminal Writ application has been filed for seeking direction upon the respondents to release of the sale

deed dated 22.01.2011 related with the petitioner detailed in Serial No.36 of the seizure list prepared by the Economic Offences Unit.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted

that the petitioner field a petition before the Special Judge

Vigilance-I -cum- Authorized Officer, Patna on 01.08.2018

for release of the sale deed No. 1615 dated 22.01.2011

which is executed in favour of the petitioner, which is evident from Annexure-2. Further, a supplementary petition dated 13.09.2018 has also been filed by the petitioner for release of the deed in question, which is evident from Annexure-3. Moreover, the respondent in their rejoinder has specifically mentioned that the property described in the deed in question has not been mentioned in the Charge sheet, which is evident from Annexure-4 and neither the same is required for further trial nor the property described in the deed in question is not included in confiscation proceeding. Therefore, the petitioner seeks proper direction to the concerned to release the deed in question.

In view of the aforesaid fact, this Court deems fit proper to direct the Special Judge Vigilance -I -cum- Authorized Officer, Patna to dispose of the petition for release of the deed in question filed by the petitioner in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid observation, this Criminal Writ application is disposed of accordingly.
