CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

2 18-12-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 324, 307, 427, 353 and 504 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case in brief is that written application by the Officer-in-charge of Kateya P.S. alleging therein that on the same day, on the information of road accident he along with other police personnel left for verification and necessary action about the road accident to Dhanawate village and after reaching there he came to know that wife of Rajendra Bhar has died in road accident so he started preparation of inquest report of the dead body, in the meantime, Neyamat Hussain @ Nath and other came and objected and said that dead body would not be taken away for postmortem, till culprit will be searched and they began to fight with the police personnel and they also started damage the government vehicle and on instigation of Neyamat Hussain many people gathered there and began to abuse to police party in the meantime Neyamat Hussain instigated the mob to kill the police party and on the Fursha upon him but he saved himself anyhow and other people began to assault and attack on the police party, they damaged the Govt. vehicle, but police party saved themselves anyhow by fleeing away. Further alleged that local Chaukidar told the name of this petitioner and 12 others, who were members of mob and who has assaulted the police party.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has committed no offence and he has falsely been implicated in this case. There is no specific allegation against the petitioner, rather, it is vague allegation. The petitioner is in custody since 25.10.2019 and has got no criminal antecedent.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 20,000/- (rupees twenty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned

Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-XV, Gopalganj, in connection with Kateya P.S. Case No. 152 of 2019.
