The present application has been filed for restoration of the appeal along with the connected applications which were dismissed for default on July 08, 2019. The same is accompanied by another application seeking condonation of delay of 51 days in filing the application for restoration.

The learned counsel for the non-applicant fairly submitted that he does not have any objection to the acceptance of the prayer made in the aforesaid applications.

After hearing the learned counsels for the parties, the application is allowed. Delay of 51 days in filing the application for restoration is condoned. The application for restoration of the appeal along with the connected applications are allowed by recalling the order dated July 08, 2019.

The appeal along with the connected applications are restored to their original numbers.
