In Re : Dhanesh Roy petitioner

Mr. D. Kundu

..... for the petitioner

Mr. U. Luksom

Mr. B. Roy

..... for the State

Heard the learned advocates appearing for the respective parties.

It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that life stock has already been seized.

Learned lawyer for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Having considered the materials on record and bearing in mind the nature of allegations in the light of the submission that the life stock has already been seized, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to him.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and that the petitioner shall appear before the court below and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.

The application being CRM 707 of 2019 is disposed of.
