SB: Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam KoshyOrder On Board*28.01.2019

1. The grievance of the petitioner in the instant case is confined to her request of she be allocated to the State of Madhya Pradesh.
2. Perusal of records would show that infact the petitioner was appointed in the State of Chhattisgarh itself. Her appointment also was much after the State was established.
3. Given the said facts, the question of allocation does not arise as the allocation could be made only in respect of those persons who were employed by the erstwhile State Government and have been allocated to the State of Chhattisgarh. Moreover, from the record it appears that the claim of the petitioner was already considered by the respondents and on due consideration the same stands rejected.

4. In view of above, this court does not find any strong case made out by the petitioner for grant of the relief that has been sought. The writ petition fails and accordingly stands dismissed.
