Order On Board

16/01/2019

1. This is absolutely misconceived writ petition filed by one of the depositor of PACL India Limited, a chit fund company. Petitioner is claiming direction to the respondent authorities to recover the amount invested/deposited by the petitioner with the chit fund company and the same be paid to the petitioner so that he can repay the loan obtained from respondent No.2 Canara Bank, Mahasamund.
2. There being no privity of contract or any relationship between the petitioner and the public authorities nor there being any promise held out to the petitioner by any such authority at any point of time for repayment of the amount deposited by the petitioner with the chit fund company nor any public authority is enjoined in law to recover the amount for the petitioner, no writ can be issued on the subject issue. Petitioner may file civil suit before the jurisdictional Civil Court for recovery of the amount from the respondent No.7 company.
3. The writ petition is dismissed.
