AWARD

(Passed on 9th March, 2019)

1. This first appeal has been preferred against the judgment and decree dated 03-03-2007 passed by the District Judge Raipur, District Raipur, C.G. in Civil Suit No.7B/2005 whereby a judgment and decree has been passed in favour of the plaintiffs/respondents 1 to 4 to the tune of Rs.2,50,000/-.

2. On behalf of the appellants and respondents 1 to 4 a compromise petition (docket) has been filed jointly wherein the parties have agreed and amicably settled the issue in the following terms:-

- (i) Appellant shall pay in all Rs.400000/- (Rs. Four Lacs) within three months,
- (ii) No any interest other than four lacs is liable to be paid,
- (iii) Respondent shall not claim any further amount other than 4 lacs as mentioned in para 1,
- (iv) any payment made earlier shall be deducted.

3. Senior Law Officer representing the appellants and counsel for respondents 1 to 4 have given statement before this Court that they have given their consent freely without any influence.

4. As the dispute between the parties is going to be completely resolved on the basis of this compromise petition presented before this Lok Adalat, the terms of compromise are lawful, therefore, the compromise petition is allowed and the reliefs are granted accordingly:-

- (i) The appellants shall pay in all Rs.400000/- (Rs. Four Lacs) to respondents 1 to 4 within three months,
- (ii) No any interest other than four lacs is liable to be paid,
- (iii) Respondents 1 to 4 shall not claim any further amount other than 4 lacs as mentioned in para (i),
- (iv) any payment made earlier shall be deducted.

5. The appellants are entitled for refund of Court Fees according to the rules regarding which certificate be issued.

6. No order as to cost.

7. Decree be drawn accordingly.

8. The appeal is disposed off in Lok Adalat.
