

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

Cont. Case (C) No.53 of 2019

Dr. Ashok Kumar Singh Vs. Mr. A. P. Panda & Ors.

06.11.2019	Shri Abhyuday Singh, Advocate for the petitioner. Shri BP Singh and Shri Vivek Chopra, Advocates for the respondents No.1to4. Shri Ravi Ranjan Sinha, Advocate for respondent No.5. On the previous date of hearing i.e. on 15.10.2019 this court had asked the respondents No.1&2 to file an affidavit in respect of submissions made by the learned senior counsel, then appearing for the respondents, on their expressing inability to comply with the directives given by this court on 27.04.2018 passed in WPS No. 48 of 2012. The respondents have moved an application for review/modification of the said order dated 15.10.2019. Today when the matter was taken up, learned counsel for the respondents No.1to4 produced a document obtained from the office of the respondent No.5 whereby details of provident fund dues credited in the account of petitioner was made available. In the light of the document produced by the counsel for the respondents No.1to4, he submits that now the order dated 27.04.2018 passed by this court could be complied with at the earliest and he prays reasonable time for compliance of that order. Considering the statements made by the counsel for the respondents and also considering the submissions that he has made that now the details required for settling dues of the petitioner has been received by the management, the dues could be cleared at the earliest, this court is of the opinion that no fruitful purpose would be served in keeping the contempt petition pending any further.

Accordingly, the contempt petition stands disposed of expecting the respondents to comply with the order dated 27.04.2018 passed in WPS No.48 of 2012 within a period of 21 days from the date of receipt of copy of this order.

The authorities are expected to honour their words that they have made before the court.

The contempt petition accordingly stands disposed of.
