Order on Board

24/01/2019

1. The challenge in the present writ petition is to the order Annexure P-1 dated 13.12.2018. By the said order, the services of the petitioner have been terminated. The termination is on the ground that the petitioner has obtained employment based on fake experience certificate.

2. Prima facie, this Court is not inclined to entertain the writ petition for the reason that there is an efficacious alternative statutory remedy of appeal available to the petitioner. The appeal against the said order would be to the Collector.
3. From the record it appears that the petitioner has not availed the remedy of appeal and has straightaway filed the writ petition. Reserving the right of the petitioner to prefer an appeal before the appellate authority within a period of 2 weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order, the writ petition stands disposed of. In case the appeal is preferred, the appellate authority in turn shall ignoring the aspect of limitation if any decide the same at the earliest preferably within a further period of 60 days thereafter.
4. The writ petition accordingly stands disposed of with the aforesaid direction.
