Order on Board

Per Manindra Mohan Shrivastava, J.

12/04/2019

1. This appeal is directed against the impugned order dated 07.02.2019 passed by the learned Special Judge, N.I.A. Act/Sah. Offences, Jagdalpur, District Bastar in Special Case No. 94/2018, rejecting bail application of the appellants in connection with alleged involvement in commission of offence under Section 147, 148, 149, 342, 435, 395, 120(b) of IPC and 25 of Arms Act, 8(1)(3)(5) of Chhattisgarh Vishesh Jan

Suraksha Adhiniyam and under Section 13(1)(a)(b), 23(1), 38(2) & 39(2) of Unlawful Activity (Prevention) Act.

2. The appellants have been involved in this case on the allegation of Loot and setting ablaze of vehicles as also other equipments used in the construction activities, which are said to be part and parcel of naxalite operation. Learned trial Court considered the bail application of the appellants and rejected the same, against which, the present appeal has been filed.
3. Learned counsel for the appellants would argue that the involvement of the appellants in the aforesaid case is false and fabricated and only based on their name appearing in the memorandum statements. It is argued that no identification has been done and as the witnesses have not specifically stated regarding name of the present appellants, they are entitled to grant of bail on appropriate conditions.
4. On the other hand, learned State counsel supports the impugned order of rejection of bail by submitting that the appellants are involved in the commission of grave offence as also they are involved in the naxalite activity of setting ablaze of vehicle and Loot. He would submit that many witnesses, who have seen the incident, are yet to be examined.
5. We have heard learned counsel for the parties.
6. Taking into consideration the allegation of grave in nature against the present appellants and there are witnesses, who have seen the incident, are yet to be examined and that in the event of grant of bail to the appellants, there is a possibility of fleeing away from justice as also hamper the progress of trial, we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order of rejection of grant of bail.

7. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. However, after examination of so-called witnesses, who are said to have seen the incident, it would be open for the appellants to approach the trial Court again.
