

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

Second Appeal No.411 of 2006

Ramkumar and another Versus Tijmat Bai and others

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 27/08/2019 | Mr.Anant Bajpai, counsel for the appellants. None present for respondents No.1 to 3. Mr.Matin Siddiqui, Dy.A.G. for respondent No.4/State. With the consent of learned counsel for the parties, the first substantial question of law is re-framed as under:- “Whether the first appellate Court was justified in firstly affirming the judgment and decree of the trial Court by recording a positive finding and thereafter rejecting the application under Order 6 Rule 17 CPC as well as application under Order 41 Rule 27 CPC ?” Judgment passed separately. Signed and dated. Sd/- (Sanjay K. Agrawal) Judge |
| B/-        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |