Order on Board

04/02/2019

Per Ajay Kumar Tripathi, Chief Justice

- 1. All these writ appeals and writ applications got clubbed together because of a common constitutional question arose whether reservation could be provided in promotion by the State Government in different service.
- 2. Various arguments were made initially both against the decision of the State to extend such benefit as well as in support thereof. However, the occasion for the High Court to decide such issue in the cases did not arise because the matter got adjourned for one reason or the other including the fact that such issue was also awaiting the outcome of a decision from a Constitutional Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court which was the case of Jarnail Singh and others v. Lachhmi Narain Gupta and others reported in (2018) 10 SCC 396.

3. In view of the opinion expressed by the Constitutional Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, all these writ appeals and writ applications stand disposed off and Rule 5 of the Chhattisgarh Civil Services Promotion Rules, 2003 stands quashed. The State Government however is given liberty to rework the Rules or the Policy within the framework of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jarnail Singh (supra).

4. If any other statutory body or Corporation in the State of Chhattisgarh has provided for or adopted the Promotion Rules, the same will also be hit by the decision in Jarnail Singh (supra).

5. The consequences of quashing of the Rule to the extent of providing reservation in promotion to the extent it falls foul of M. Nagaraj and Others v. Union of India and Others reported in (2006) 8 SCC 212 and Jarnail Singh case (supra) will follow.
