Order on Board

24/05/2019

1. Since these two bail applications have been filed against the same crime number i.e. Crime No.116/2019, they are being disposed of by this common order.
2. These is the first bail applications filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for grant of regular bail to the applicants who have been arrested in connection with Crime No.116/2019, registered at Police Station-Kusmunda, District-Korba (CG), for the offence punishable under Sections 307, 427, 294, 506, 323, 147 and 148 of the IPC.
3. In this case there are total 14 accused persons. As per the prosecution story, on 24.03.2019 at about 12.30 noon one of the accused namely Sonu Pandey and others blocked the Gate No. 3 & 5 of SECL, Kusmunda by parking their trucks in front of Gate. Thereafter, Complainant Abhishek Sharma came there and asked for the reasons of blocking the road, allegedly, accused persons abused him. Thereafter, Abhishek Sharma went to Bhutta Square and called his friends. His friends came on their vehicles at Gate No. 3 & 5, allegedly, at that time present Applicants and other accused persons attacked Complainant and his friends with iron rod, stick and other weapons with intention to kill them and also damaged the Fortuner Vehicle of victim Amarjeet Singh. Somehow victims managed to escape from the place of incident. Thereafter matter was reported in the police station. Presents Applicants were taken into custody on 24.03.2019.

4. Learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Applicants submits that the Applicants are innocent and have been falsely implicated in the case. It is further submitted that after blocking Gate No. 3 & 5, quarrel took place between both the parties. The Complainant party are the aggressor and as a result of quarrel, Saurabh Singh, Brijesh Pandey, Bhavesh @ Gappu and Mohit were received injuries. Accused persons also reported the matter in the police station but no action were taken against the complainant party. Applicants are in custody since 24.03.2019 and trial is likely to take some time. Therefore, they may be released on bail.

5. Per contra, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the State opposes the bail applications and submits that there are sufficient evidence available on records against the Applicants which shows that there is involvement of present Applicants in the said crime.

6. Learned Counsel for the Objector opposes that bail applications. Reliance has been placed on the judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in (2018) 12 SCC 129, Anil Kumar Yadav V. State (NCT of Delhi). He submits that out of 14 accused persons, only 7 accused persons have been arrested and others are still absconding. At the time of incident, accused persons used sword, lathi, iron rod and other deadly weapons. Both present Applicants were present at the place of incident, they are main accused and head of their group. However, two victims namely Dhananjay Singh and Chanchal Thakur received grievous injuries on their head. Both of them were also admitted in the hospital for about 25 days. Looking to the grievous head injuries sustained by the victims, bail applications of the present Applicants should be rejected.

7. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and perused the case diary minutely.

8. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the evidence collected by the prosecution, the arguments advanced by both the parties and further considering the fact that quarrel took place between both the parties and both parties have sustained injuries, present Applicants are in custody since 24.03.2019, some accused persons are still absconding and trial is likely to take some time and the fact that bail was granted by this Court to applicants-Ramashray and Ajay Kumar Choubey in M.Cr.C.No.2733 of 2019 vide order dated 10.5.2019 and bail was granted to Satendra Kumar Pandey by the trial Court in Bail Application No.149/2019 vide order dated 16.5.2019, without further commenting on merits of the case, I am inclined to release them on bail.

9. Accordingly, the bail applications are allowed.

10. It is directed that the Applicants shall be released on bail on each of them executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs. 20,000/- with one solvent surety for the like amount to the satisfaction of the concerned Trial Court for their appearance before the said Court as and when directed.
