1. The Petitioners have approached this Court with some strange prayers as extracted below:-

“10.1 To kindly grant liberty to the petitioners to prefer an appeal before the learned Appellate Authority under Section 31 of the Accommodation Control Act, 1961.

10.2 To kindly make any other order that may be deemed fit and just in the facts and circumstances of the case including awarding of the costs to the petitioner.”

2. Earlier the Petitioners had moved this Court by filing WPC No.2016 of 2019, which was sought to be withdrawn by virtue of certain omissions and corrections to be incorporated. Accordingly, the case was dismissed as withdrawn, granting liberty as per judgement dated 19.06.2019.
3. Now, the Petitioners seek for permission/direction of this Court to enable them to pursue the remedy by way of appeal under a statute; in connection with the alleged tenancy rights.
4. How the writ petition is maintainable is the question. The learned counsel for the Petitioners, when asked to substantiate, seeks for permission to withdraw the matter.
5. Considering the prayer of the learned counsel for the Petitioners, writ petition stands dismissed as withdrawn. We reluctantly refrain from awarding cost.
