Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. AgrawalOrder On Board

20/12/2019

(1) By order dated 29.05.2018, accused/petitioner's opportunity to cross-examine the complainant was closed, against which he preferred revision. The revision was also dismissed by the impugned order dated 19.12.2018, against which this petition under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. has been preferred.

(2) I have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties.

(3) Taking into consideration the cause shown by the petitioner for his absence before the trial Magistrate on 29.05.2018 to cross-examine the complainant; further considering the nature of dispute pending against the petitioner under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, in the ends of justice, final opportunity is granted to the petitioner to cross-examine the complainant on 20th January, 2020 subject to payment of cost of Rs. 5,000/- payable to the complainant. Ordered accordingly.

(4) Accordingly, the impugned order dated 19.12.2018 is modified to the extent indicated hereinabove.

- (5) With the aforesaid observations, the Cr.M.P. stands finally disposed of.
- (6) Copy of this order be sent to the concerned trial Magistrate for compliance and needful.
- (7) It is made clear the no further adjournment will be granted to the petitioner unless it is unavoidable.
