Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam KoshyOrder on Board*07/08/2019

1. The challenge in the present writ petition is to the enquiry report
 Annexure P-1.
2. This Court at the outset is of the opinion that writ petition at this juncture is too premature as it is well settled by a catena of decisions that the Writ Court should not exercise their powers under Article 226 of Constitution of India at the stage of enquiry report.

3. It is expected that respondent authorities would give an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner before taking a final decision. It is also expected that respondent authorities before taking any decision would consider the contentions and the submissions which the petitioner would be bringing to its notice particularly in respect of the earlier judgment in this context by this Court and any other materials that would be brought to the notice of the authorities by the petitioner.
4. Reserving the right of the petitioner to approach this Court in the event of an adverse order being passed against the petitioner, the writ petition stands disposed off.
