1. The applicant has preferred this first bail application under Section 439 of Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail as he arrested in connection with crime No. 192/2019 registered at Police Station – Koni Bilaspur Civil and Revenue District Bilaspur (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 20 (B) of NDPS Act.
2. According to the prosecution story, on the basis of information received from an informant, Police Personnel searched the house of the applicant and seized total 01.10 Kg. contraband article cannabis (Ganja) from the possession of applicant. Thereafter, the applicant has been arrested.
3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Applicant submits that the Applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the case. He further submits that the applicant is in custody since 04.07.2019. He has no previous antecedent and trial will take some time, therefore, he may be released on bail.

4. Per contra, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State opposes the bail application.
5. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties.
6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the detention period of the applicant, and further considering the fact that the seized quantity of cannabis (Ganja) is less than commercial quantity and trial is likely to take some time, without further commenting on merits of the case, I am inclined to release him on bail.
7. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.
8. It is directed that the applicant shall be released on bail on executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs. 50,000/-, with one surety for the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court for his appearance before the said Court as and when directed.
