Order

14/10/2019

1. The challenge in the present writ petition is to the order Annexure P-1 dated 15.05.2017 which is an order of punishment of stoppage of one annual increment with non-cumulative effect.
2. The present writ petition has been filed after about more than two years from the date of the impugned order was passed. The order of punishment is an appealable order under the service rules. Record does not reveal that the petitioner, at any point of time, has challenged the order of punishment before the appellate authority.
3. Thus, reserving the right of the petitioner to challenge the impugned order of punishment before the appellate authority, the present writ petition, in its present form, stands dismissed as not maintainable.

4. In case the petitioner prefers an appeal within a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, the appellate authority shall decide the same within a reasonable period of time. To condone the delay the petitioner may prefer separate application stating reasons thereof and the appellate authority may adjudicate the same sympathetically taking into fact the petitioner had preferred the remedy before this court.
