1. Heard learned counsel for the Applicant and learned Government Advocate for the State.
2. The only ground on which the review has been sought is that the candidate in question was illiterate and therefore, a more magnanimous and liberal view ought to be taken.

3. Since law is equal for all and makes no distinction between a literate or an illiterate person in matters of compliance or non-compliance, therefore, the same cannot be a ground for leeway or any concession in the matter of rigors of law, which is required to set in, due to non-compliance.
4. Review application has no merit. It is dismissed.
