---- Applicants

Versus

- State Of Chhattisgarh Through The Station House Officer, P.S. Simga, District Baloda Bazar-Bhatapara.

---- Respondent

For Applicants	:	Mr. Atanu Ghosh Advocate.
For Respondent	:	Mr. Akshara Amit, P.L.

Hon'ble Smt. Justice Rajani DubeyOrder on Board*27/11/2019

- The accused/applicants have moved this first bail application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for releasing them on regular bail during trial in connection with Crime No. 413/2019 registered at Police Station - Simga, District Baloda Bazar Bhatapara (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 34 (2) of the C.G. Excise Act.
- It is the case of the prosecution that, 5.940 bulk liters country made illicit liquor was seized by the police from the custody of applicants and thereby committed the offence.
- Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicants have been falsely implicated in the crime in question. He further submits that as the applicants are in custody since 10.10.2019 and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, they may be released on bail.

- On the other hand, counsel for the State opposes the bail application submitting that there are previous antecedents against respondent Nos. 2 & 3.
- Taking into consideration the condition incorporated in Section 59-A(ii) of the C.G. Excise Act, 1915, and bearing in mind the principles of law laid down in Banti Singh v. State of Chhattisgarh (M.Cr.C. No.6846 of 2014), decided on 05.01.2015), if the facts of present case are examined, it is apparent that total 5.940 bulk liters of illicit liquor has been seized from them which is more than prescribed limit of 5 bulk liters, but looking to the fact that the applicants are in custody since 10.10.2019, trial is likely to take some more time and further taking into account the nature and gravity of offence and plea raised by the applicants that they have falsely been implicated in case, I am of the opinion that present is the fit case, in which, the applicants should be enlarged on regular bail.
- Accordingly, the application is allowed. It is directed that on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- each, with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Court for their appearance as and when directed, the applicants shall be released on bail, subject to following conditions:
 - That, the applicants shall furnish a specific, undertaking that while on bail, they will not commit any excise offence, otherwise bail granted to them shall be liable to be cancelled and shall co-operate the prosecution during trial.

- That, the accused/applicants shall make themselves available for interrogation before the concerned Investigating Officer as and when required and the accused/applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer.
- That, the accused/applicants shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial.
