Order on Board

18/01/2019

1. Office objections are overruled.
2. Having carefully gone through the review petitions, the order under challenge and the papers annexed therewith, I am satisfied that there is no error apparent on the face of the record, warranting reconsideration of the order under review.
3. At this stage, Mr. Ashish Shrivastava, learned counsel appearing for the applicants submits that six months further time may be granted to comply with the order of this Court dated 13.10.2017 and subsequent orders. The said prayer is vehemently opposed by Mr. Aman Kehsarwani, learned counsel appearing for the respondents, stating that they have been deprived of possession of their suit property way back in the year 2010 and after a lapse of one year these review petitions have been filed which is groundless, therefore, further time be not granted to the applicants to comply the order(s) passed by this Court.
4. Considering the submissions of learned counsel for the parties, time upto 31.03.2019 is extended to comply with the order passed by this Court on 13.10.2017 and subsequent orders.
5. The review petitions are accordingly dismissed with the above-stated observation/direction as contained in para-3 of this order. No cost(s).
