Order on Board

Per, Ajay Kumar Tripathi, Chief Justice

03.01.2019

1. This contempt application stands dismissed for the simple reason that the deposits have been already made by the contemnors before the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central). Now, it is for the Petitioner to do the needful to withdraw the same.
2. If the Petitioner has not handed over the official accommodation to the Respondents, he will be forcefully evicted within 15 days from today irrespective of the settlement and payment which the Court is of the opinion is being used as a ploy to illegally remain in possession of the official accommodation despite him having superannuated years ago.

3. If the Petitioner does not vacate the accommodation within 15 days in terms of today's order, a contempt will be initiated against him.
