Hon'ble Shri Justice Parth Prateem Sahu
Judgment on Board

Per Ajay Kumar Tripathi, Chief Justice
06.03.2019

1. Writ application of the appellant/petitioner was dismissed by the learned Single Judge refusing to interfere with order of rejection by the respondents on the claim for compassionate appointment on the ground that two of the family members are already in employment ie two brothers of the present appellant are already in government employment.
2. After having considered the details of the arguments and submissions, the Hon'ble Single Judge was of the opinion that merely on taking the plea that brothers are living separately or that she is a divorcee now will not become a ground for providing compassionate appointment or employment to all the family members. Compassionate appointment is not a method for obtaining back room appointment under the respondents-State authorities. The object is to provide immediate relief to the family.

3. The facts being what they are, even if the factum of delay in challenging the order of rejection is ignored, it is not a fit case where compassionate appointment should be extended to the appellant as the family is nowhere in financial distress as there are two brothers who are government servants.

4. Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
