Heard.

2. The mediation report shows that the parties have settled their dispute and have jointly stated that they are prepared to apply for grant of decree by mutual consent by moving appropriate application under Section 13 (B) of the Hindu Marriage Act.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant would argue that appropriate direction may be issued to the Family Court for waiving cooling period in view of the settlement and the background of the case.

4. After hearing learned counsel for the appellant, this appeal is disposed off with the observation that in view of compromise entered into between the parties, it would be open for move appropriate application for grant of decree of divorce by mutual consent under the provision of the Hindu Marriage Act.

5. Further in the event of such application being filed by both the parties, the Family Court said do well to expeditiously dispose off the matter by due consideration of prayer for waiving cooling period of six months and ensure that the settlement entered into between the parties is given effect to at the earliest, in view of Supreme Court decision in Amardeep Singh Vs. Harveen Kaur, 2017 (8) SCC 746.

6. Appeal is accordingly disposed off.
