Hon'ble Shri Justice Ram Prasanna SharmaOrder On Board*25-01-2019

1. The applicant has preferred this bail application under Section 438 of the Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail as he apprehends his arrest in connection with Crime No. 547 of 2018 registered at Police Station Chhawani, Distt. Durg (CG) for the offence punishable under Sections 384, 386, 506 and 50734 of the Indian Penal Code.

2. As per the case of the prosecution, allegation against present applicant is that present applicant is involved on the basis of discovery statement of one co-accused namely Manish @ Mantu Duubey.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that allegation against the present applicant is vague in nature and no recovery is made from him, therefore, benefit of anticipatory bail may be extended to him.

4. On the contrary, learned State counsel opposes the application for grant of bail.

5. Looking to the fact that the applicant has been involved on the basis of discovery statement of co-accused Manish @ Mantu Dubey and no recovery is made from him, the benefit of anticipatory bail should be extended to him.

6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest of the applicant in connection with the aforesaid offence, he shall be released on bail by the officer arresting him on executing a personal bond in a sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the officer arresting him or the concerned investigating officer. The applicant shall also abide by the following conditions:-
