Mr. Vivekanand B. Deshmukh, Adv For R/sole (caveator)

CORAM : P.R. BORA, J.

condonation of delay, which has occasioned in filing the appeals. Another civil applications are filed seeking leave to file appeals since the Corporation was not made party in the reference court.

2. Delay of 1575 days has occurred in preferring the appeals by the Corporation. Shri Tandale, learned counsel appearing for the appellant corporation submitted that since the appellant corporation was not made party in the name of the Corporation in the Reference Court, it was not appropriately represented and as such, leave needs to be granted to prosecute the appeals on merits.

3. Learned Counsel Shri Deshmukh is appearing in four matters for the respondents, i.e. original claimants. In other matters though the respondents are duly served, none of them has caused appearance in the matter. Shri Deshmukh has opposed for condoning the delay, which has occasioned in filing the appeals and also for granting leave to appeals to Corporation stating that the appellant - Corporation was duly represented through the learned Government Pleader.

4. After having considered the submissions, it appears to me that the Corporation was liable to be made party in the name of the Corporation in the Reference Court. In the circumstances, leave needs to be granted and if the delay has occasioned mainly on that ground, the same also deserves to be condoned. Hence, the following order, -

i. The civil applications seeking leave to file appeals are allowed and disposed of.

ii. The applications seeking condonation of delay also allowed and disposed of.

5. The appeals be registered in accordance with law. On registration of the appeals, issue notices to the respondents, returnable after four weeks.

6. Learned Counsel Shri Deshmukh submits that he has instructions to appear for the respondents i.e. original claimants in all the matters and he will file his Vakalatnama within a period of four weeks. Service complete.

7. List the appeals for further consideration on 11th February, 2019.
