CORAM: RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.

DATE :- 03rd May, 2019

Per Court:

1 The learned advocate for the Management, in the first Civil Application No.5950/2019, submits that this Civil Application has become infructuous and can be disposed of in view of the directions of the Honourable Supreme Court dated 29.04.2019 in which, the Management is directed to deposit Rs.15 lac before the concerned Trial Court.

2 As such, the first Civil Application No.5950/2019 filed by the Management is disposed of as being infructuous.

3 The second Civil Application No.5951/2019 has been filed by the Employee, who has prayed for vacating interim relief granted by this Court (Coram : N.M.Jamdar, J) vide order dated 06.12.2018.

4 I find that since the Honourable Supreme Court has stayed the directions in the order of this Court and has imposed a condition on the Management to deposit Rs.15 lac, the second Civil Application No.5951/2019 would not survive and stands disposed of.

5 Both the sides are at liberty to circulate the writ petition after the Honourable Supreme Court passes further orders in the pending Special Leave Petition.
