CORAM : T. V. NALAWADE &
MANGESH S. PATIL, JJ.

DATE : 25th April, 2019.

ORAL JUDGMENT: (Per T. V. Nalawade, J.)

. Rule. Rule made returnable forthwith. By consent, heard both the sides for final disposal.

2 The proceeding is filed for relief of quashing of FIR No.383 of 2018, registered with Chandanzira Police Station, District Jalna, for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3 This Court has carefully gone through the allegations made in the FIR. It was a private transaction. In respect of supply of goods, some amount was not paid and then FIR was given. Today, during the arguments, the learned counsel for Applicants and the learned counsel for first informant submitted that the parties have settled the dispute. To that effect, they have filed memorandum of compromise. It is taken on record. It is advisable that the affidavit containing the terms of companies and no objection for giving relief are put by way of affidavit by the first informant. Such statement is made. It is to be produced today only as the first informant is present in the Court hall. In the result, the following order is passed:

ORDER

- I. The application is allowed.
- II. Relief is granted in terms of prayer clause (A).
- III. Rule is made absolute in those terms.

[MANGESH S. PATIL, J.]
