to certain bona fide difficulties, the office objections could not be removed within a stipulated period, resulting in dismissal of the writ petition on technical grounds. He then submitted that, if time is granted to the applicants/petitioners, those office objections would be removed as expeditiously as possible and the rider in the form of technical difficulty may not be faced by the petitioners against the merits of the petition.

3. In view of the submissions of learned Counsel for the applicants and for the reasons stated in the application as well as the assurance given by the learned Counsel for the applicants/petitioners that the office objections would be removed as expeditiously as possible, the application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (C) and (D), subject to removal of office objections within a period of two weeks from today.

Civil Application is disposed of accordingly.
