CORAM : RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.

DATED : 3rd SEPTEMBER, 2019.

PER COURT :

1. This matter was considered on 28/08/2019 and while issuing notice, ad interim relief was granted by preventing the APMC from filling the three vacant posts. This order was passed as the learned Advocate made a statement on instructions that these posts were lying vacant.

2. This matter was not on board today. A motion was moved at 10.30 a.m. informing that the petitioner desires to withdraw this petition. Hence, taken on the production board.

3. The learned Advocate for the petitioner places on record a copy of the communication received by him from the petitioner that he does not desire to prosecute this petition. The learned Advocate conveys that the petitioner has realized that he had given incorrect instructions to the learned Advocate and the three posts had actually been filled in. Copy of the communication is taken on record and marked as 'X' for identification.

4. In view of the above, this petition is disposed off as withdrawn on instructions.
