PC. :-

This is an application by original claimants to withdraw the amount of compensation stated to be deposited in this Court in terms of the award passed by the Tribunal.

2. The learned advocate for the respondent-Insurance Company which has preferred the appeal at the outset submits that in fact, though the order was passed while filing the appeal enabling it to deposit the money as a condition for stay, it had not deposited the money and the stay stood vacated automatically. However, today he is ready with the cheque which may be accepted and appropriate order be passed on this application.

3. Office to accept the cheque.
4. The applicants are allowed to withdraw the entire amount of compensation to be deposited in this Court subject to furnishing usual undertaking. Application is disposed of.
