

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY BENCH AT AURANGABAD

MISC.CIVIL APPLICATION NO.128 OF 2018

RUTUJA SANGRAM ATKARE VERSUS
SANGRAM PRASAD ATKARE

...

Advocate for the Applicant : Shri Wakure Sanjay A.
Advocate for the Respondent : Shri Mandlik Pratap P.

...

CORAM: RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.
DATE :- 15th February, 2019

Per Court:

1 The Applicant/ wife along with her uncle and the Respondent/ husband along with his father, are present in the Court. Since the litigating sides have amicably settled their terms of compromise, which are termed as consent terms, I had requested the learned Registrar (Judicial) to verify the consent terms.

2 These parties along with their respective Advocates appeared before the learned Registrar (Judicial) and the report dated 15.02.2019 signed at 04:25 pm by the learned Registrar (Judicial) is placed before the Court. The consent terms (12 pages) are, therefore, taken on record and marked as "X" for identification.

3 It is stated that after the couple files a joint or individual application for consent divorce before the concerned Court on or before 06.03.2019, the Husband would deposit the amount of Rs.7.50 lac in the same court within seven days thereafter. After the said amount is deposited, the Applicant/ wife would withdraw all the proceedings initiated by her and the matter with regard to the consent divorce would then be dealt with by the concerned Court and would be disposed off in view of the consent of the parties. The Applicant/ wife would thereafter, be entitled to withdraw the amount of Rs.7.50 lac along with accrued interest from the said Court, without conditions.

4 The consent terms "X" shall be treated as a part of this order. If either of the parties seek a certified copy of this order, the consent terms "X" would also be a part of the said certified copy.

5 It is made clear that once these consent terms "X" are fully implemented, neither of the parties would be permitted to reopen any proceedings inasmuch the Respondent/ husband will be precluded from attempting to contact the Applicant.

6 This Miscellaneous Civil Application is, accordingly, disposed of.