CORAM: RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.

DATE :- 13th November, 2019

Per Court:

1 This matter was not on the board. The learned advocate for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner desires to withdraw this writ petition since a statutory remedy to challenge the order of the District Collector, Hingoli dated 04.10.2019, impugned in this petition, is available to the petitioner. Hence, taken on the production board.

2 Considering the above, this Writ Petition is disposed off as withdrawn with liberty to avail of a statutory remedy.

3 The petitioner appears to have preferred this writ petition on 04.11.2019 and claims to have received the intimation of the impugned order dated 04.10.2019 on 21.10.2019. He received the certified copy on 23.10.2019.

4 As such, the petitioner is left with only three days of limitation available having exhausted 12 days earlier while approaching this Court. Therefore, the time spent by the petitioner in this Court from 04.11.2019 till the passing of this order today, would be excused if he approaches the appropriate authority on or before 16.11.2019.
