CORAM : MANGESH S. PATIL, J.

DATE : 13.12.2019

PER COURT :

Heard both the sides.

2. The original claimants in all these matters are seeking withdrawal of the amount of compensation deposited in this Court by the Acquiring Body.

3. The learned Advocate for the Acquiring Body strongly opposes the applications. He submits that the Reference Court has granted exorbitant increment and no amount shall be allowed to be withdrawn without furnishing bank guarantee.

4. I have carefully perused the impugned judgments and awards, particularly the reasons assigned by the Reference Court for giving the increment. The amounts which stand deposited in this Court range between Rs.4,00,000/- to Rs.10,00,000/-

5. Considering all these aspects, it would be just and proper to allow the original claimants to withdraw 75% of the amount deposited in this Court on usual terms and conditions.

6. The applications are allowed. The applicants are allowed to withdraw 75% of the amount deposited in this Court, 50% by furnishing an undertaking in usual terms and 25% by furnishing solvent security.
