CORAM : P.R. BORA, J.
Dated: January 30, 2019

PER COURT :-

1. Heard the learned Counsel appearing for the applicant. Since the steps were not taken against some of the respondents, the Court has vide order passed on 06.06.2018 dismissed the applications for condonation of delay and consequently the appeals on stamp numbers against the said respondents. The learned Counsel submits that, within a week, the appellants / applicants will furnish the requisite number of copies of the applications / appeals etc., in the Registry. In view of the submission so made, the applications on stamp numbers with appeal on stamp numbers stand restored against the unserved respondents. If the copies are supplied, the office to issue notice to the said unserved respondents returnable after four weeks thereafter.

2. Civil Application No.165 of 2019 stands disposed of.
