. Not on board. Taken on Board.

2. Learned Counsel for the petitioner urge that the only reason why no confidence motion was moved against the petitioner who is a Sarpanch is that she was taking action against the alleged wrong doing which was not liked by the other members. According to him this was the reason for pressing no confidence motion against the petitioner.

3. Considering that almost 9 out of 11 members have passed the no confidence motion against the petitioner, this is not a fit case to interfere with the impugned order. Petition is rejected.
