DATE : JANUARY 14, 2019.

P. C. :

1 These are applications for bail. The learned Counsel for the applicants submits that the matter can be fixed for hearing peremptorily. However, since this Court is hearing the appeals of the year 2014 where the accused have almost completed the sentence in jail or are at the verge of completion of their substantive sentence, it would not be proper to fix the present matter to the final hearing. However, the liberty is given to renew the prayer for grant of bail after 6 months. In view of this, applications seeking suspension of sentence are disposed of. It is made clear that these applications are not heard on merits.

Talwalkar
