CORAM : A.M.BADAR J.

DATED : 20th FEBRUARY 2019.

P.C. :

1 These are applications for the suspension of sentence and releasing the applicant/accused on bail during pendency of appeal filed by him. The applicant/accused is convicted for the offences punishable under Sections 135 and 138 of the Electricity Act and he is sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for two years apart from direction to pay fine of Rs.35,85,900/- and default sentence of simple imprisonment for six months for the offence punishable under Section 135 of the Electricity Act. For the offence punishable under Section 138 of the Electricity Act, the applicant/accused is sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for two years apart from payment of fine of Rs.5,000/- and in default to undergo further simple imprisonment for three months.

2 Heard the learned Counsel for the applicant/accused. On specific instructions from relatives of the applicant, the learned Counsel for the applicant has submitted that the applicant is ready and willing to deposit the entire amount of fine as soon as possible and conditional Order of the release of the applicant/accused be passed.

3 The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the application.

4 Considering the fact that the applicant/accused is ready and willing to deposit entire amount of fine imposed by the learned trial Court to compensate the Distribution Company for the alleged theft of electricity and as short sentence of imprisonment is imposed on the applicant/accused, the following order :

ORDER

- (i) On depositing entire amount of fine imposed on the applicant/accused by the learned trial Court in the learned trial Court, the substantive sentence of imprisonment imposed on the applicant/accused is suspended and he is directed to be released on bail on his executing P.R.Bond of Rs.15,000/- and on furnishing surety in the like amount.

(ii) As a condition of the Order, the applicant/accused shall not repeat commission of similar offences in future.

(iii) Both the applications stand disposed of accordingly.
