DATED : 13th August 2019

P.C:-

1 The case pleaded in the Public Interest Litigation is that respondent nos.1 and 2 have acquired interest in land compliance in Survey No.114 A & B admeasuring 325.28 and 384.59 sq.meters in Village Manikpur, District Thane. The reply brings out that an FIR was registered and investigation was being held. Current status of the investigation is not known to the counsel who are appearing today.

2 Be that as it may, once an FIR is registered, proceedings as per Code of Criminal Procedure requires if no offence is made out, a closure report be submitted. If an offence is made out, a charge-sheet to be submitted. Thus, further action pursuant to the FIR would be as per the requirements of the Criminal Procedure Code.

3 We discharge the notice issued in the PIL and terminate the proceedings therein.

4 Since the PIL has been disposed of, pending Civil Application are disposed of as infructuous.
