The learned counsel for the applicant submits that after remand ordered by this Court, the Central Government Industrial Tribunal (CJIT) has decided the matter on 31/12/2014 against the interest of respondent. The respondent who is under liquidation has not questioned the order dated 31/12/2014 passed by CJIT in favour of the applicant. According to her, in the aforesaid background the amount that was deposited in the petition needs to be permitted to be withdrawn with accrued interest thereon.

2 Since the contentions raised in the application are not controverted, in my opinion, application deserves to be allowed in terms of prayer clause 7 (i).

3 Application stands allowed in the above terms.
