CORAM : M.S.KARNIK, J.

DATE : 25th JULY, 2019

P.C. :

On the last occasion after hearing the matter for sometime the parties indicated that there is every possibility of a settlement. Today when the matter was called out, learned counsel appearing for the respective parties stated that they have agreed to settle the matter.

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 stated that respondent No.2 would pay to the appellant a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only) which would be towards full and final settlement of the claims of the appellant.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant on instructions agrees to accept the amount of Rs.10,00,000/- towards the full and final settlement of her claims.

4. Today learned counsel for respondent No.2 handed over two cheques to learned counsel for the appellant. One cheque is in the sum of Rs.4,78,098/- and other one is of Rs.1,86,473/-. The said cheques are accepted by learned counsel for the appellant. The balance amount Rs.3,35,429/- would be paid by respondent No.2 to the appellant within a period of 10 weeks from today.

5. Accepting the settlement made by learned counsel for respondent No.2, on instructions of the respondent No.2 that the balance amount of Rs.3,35,429/- will be paid within a period 10 weeks from today as an undertaking to this Court, the present Appeal is disposed of in the above terms.

6. Needless to mention that the present settlement is arrived in the peculiar facts of the case as even I had suggested the parties to amicably resolve the dispute. This obviously will not act as a precedent in any other matter.

7. List the Appeal for “compliance” after 10 weeks.
