

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 545 OF 2018
IN CIVIL REVISION APPLICATION (ST.) NO.
14409 of 2018

Madarsa Takiyatul Islam & Ors. ...Applicants

Versus

Smt. Jubeeda Abdul Majid ...Respondent

Hemant Ghadigaonkar – Advocate for the applicant
Pritesh K. Bohade – Advocate for the respondent.

CORAM : DAMA SESHADRI NAIDU, J.

DATE : 25th JUNE 2019.

P.C. :

Heard the parties. As the record reveals, the landlord filed Civil Revision Application before this Court after suffering concurrent findings in the Trial Court and in the Appellate Court, on his claim to have rents recovered from the tenant and also get the tenant evicted.

2. But the Civil Revision application is filed with a delay of 67 days. Despite the respondent's objection, I reckon the applicant has shown sufficient cause for the delay.

3. I, accordingly, condone the delay direct the Registry to number the Civil Revision Application.
