Ms.Rubia Taneja for the applicants.

Mr. V.Y.Sanglikar for respondents (Original applicants in CRA)

CORAM : DAMA SESHADRI NAIDU, J.

1st October 2019.

P.C.

Earlier this Court allowed Civil Application No.326/2019 and wanted the applicants to carry out the amendment in a fixed time frame. As they could not comply with the direction, this Court extended the time by one week. Now the applicant's counsel once again wants the time extended. Of course, she sites reasons for the delay.

2. But the respondent's counsel, today, wants to file an additional affidavit raising objection against the maintainability of the civil application no.326/2019 which, in fact, stood already allowed.

3. Under these circumstances, the applicant's counsel wants the time for carrying out the amendment extended subject to this Court's ruling on the respondents' additional affidavit now sought to be filed.

As a result the time granted earlier for the applicants stands extended by ten more days. Post the matter on 18th October 2019.
