CORAM : B. P. DHARMADHIKARI &
REVATI MOHITE DERE, JJ.

DATE : 17/01/2019.

P.C.:

. The petitioner officer of Delhi police is before this Court in the matter under section 482 of Cr.P.C. with a prayer to quash and set aside the FIR being MECR No.16/2012 and chargesheet filed in it. Respondent No.1 complainant is present with her advocate and she has given no objection. The reason for giving no objection is her daughter is one of the witnesses in the matter and her daughter wants to pursue higher education out of the country and therefore is not interested in remaining present for recording her evidence.

2. We have perused the report on the basis of which FIR has been registered. It reveals misuse or abuse of his position by the petitioner. Not only this prima facie after finding some substance in support, chargesheet has been tendered. Considering the nature of allegations, post hold by the petitioner we find it inexpedient to intervene in extra ordinary jurisdiction.

Hence we reject the present petition.
