CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLICATION (APL) NO.1355 OF 2019

Pratit Pramod Atre and Ors.

...Applicants

vs.

The State of Maharashtra and Anr.

...Respondents

Mr. Jay S. Patil i/b Nalanda A. Jadhav for the Applicants.
Smt. A. S. Pai, APP for the Respondent/State.

CORAM : B. P. DHARMADHIKARI &
N.R. BORKAR , JJ.
DATE : 05/12/2019.

PC.:

. Parties were seeking quashing of FIR by consent. Applicant however seeks leave to withdraw the application since Consent Terms needs to be amended.

2. Learned APP is present.

3. We grant liberty to the applicant to file fresh application.

4. As parties claim that the matter is amicably settled, we grant leave to withdraw the petition with liberty as prayed for. However, while presenting the fresh application, the consent terms forming part of the present petition and as settled/amended shall be produced for perusal of the Court. The application is disposed of as withdrawn with liberty as prayed.
