None for respondents.

CORAM : B.R. GAVAI &
DAMA SESHADRI NAIDU, JJ

15th APRIL 2019.

P.C.

Heard learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner. Inspite of being duly served, none appears for respondents 1 and 2.

2. Rule. Rule made returnable forthwith.

3. The petitioner has approached this Court in the peculiar facts and circumstances. The petitioner's daughter had appeared for secondary examination held in March-April 2017 conducted by respondent no.2. In the online results declared by respondent no.2, the petitioner's daughter was declared to have passed the examination. On the basis of same, the admission was also granted to petitioner's daughter in respondent no.3 School. However, subsequently for the reasons best known, the respondent no.2 has refused to issue the mark-sheet and relevant pass certificate to the petitioner's daughter. As such the petitioner has approached this Court.

4. As already observed herein above, respondents are duly served but none appears for respondents. As such the averments made against the respondents have gone unchallenged. We are of the view that there is no justifiable reason to withdraw the mark-sheet and pass certificate of performance of petitioner's daughter of secondary examination conducted by respondents.

5. As such the rule is made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a).
