

before the Court Chief Judicial Magistrate and the accused has been granted bail by the said Court. Apart from the above, a certified copy of statement under S. 164 Cr.P.C. of the alleged missing girl has been obtained, it is available on record. Copy of the same is also provided to the learned counsel for the Petitioner. In view of the above, we find that no further purpose would be sub-served by keeping this writ petition pending, since alleged minor girl cannot be said to be in illegal confinement or detention. We, therefore, dispose of the writ petition with liberty to the Petitioner to take recourse of a remedy, as is available, in law.
