.....Respondents

Mr. Sachin P. Shetye for the Petitioner
Mr. Aniket P Ranade for respondent nos. 1 to 4

CORAM : NITIN W. SAMBRE, J.

DATE : JUNE 13, 2019.

P.C.

The order impugned is passed by Maharashtra Revenue Tribunal ('MRT' for short) refusing to condone the delay as no sufficient cause is cited.

2 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for respondent.

3 There is delay of 61 days in preferring Revision before MRT.

4 Amongst other reasons cited were, present matter before Collector and the lawyer was under impression that the Tribunal has summer vacation.

5 Considering the length of delay and the cause cited, subject to payment of cost of Rs. 3000/- to be deposited in the MRT, delay stands condoned. Respondent will be entitled for the cost. Cost to be deposited within period of 4 weeks from today.

6 Petition stands disposed of.

7 This Court expects MRT to decide the Revision expeditiously. Parties hereto agree that they shall appear before MRT on 01/07/2019. As such, notices to respective parties are dispensed with.
