P.C.:-

Having heard both sides, we find that the Petition styled as Review cannot be entertained.

2. The Review Petition is nothing but a Memo of Appeal. All the paragraphs and the grounds therein denote that the order of this Court is stated to be passed on incorrect factual assumptions and this Court has not appreciated the powers of the Grievance Redressal Committee. If the grounds (a) to (e) are perused together with the preceding and following substantive paragraphs, it is evident that this not a Petition which can be entertained within the limited parameters of Review. The review jurisdiction is not to be equated with Appeal or Revision. In Appeal whole judgment and order is open for scrutiny and verification on facts and law. In review it is not so. If we entertain this Review Petition we have to reconsider the matter in its entirety. That is impermissible in review jurisdiction. Though we condone the delay in filing the Review Petition, we find no merits in the same. It is accordingly dismissed.

3. In view of the dismissal of the Review Petition, nothing survives for consideration in Notice of Motion (L) No. 461/2019. The same is accordingly disposed of.
