CORAM: S. C. Dharmadhikari &
G. S. Patel, JJ.
DATED: 10th October 2019

PC:-

1. Heard the petitioner in person. Perused the writ petition.
2. We do not think that in writ jurisdiction any relief can be granted, and particularly to protect the possession of the petitioner in respect of an immovable property.
3. If anybody including the police machinery is threatening to either dispossess or interfere with the physical possession, the petitioner is not prevented from approaching a Civil Court and seek all protective reliefs. We do not think that when there is a clear dispute on facts that we should entertain the writ petition.

4. The writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
